MINES AND MINING OUTPUTS

The Production of Zinc and Lead Ores for the Year 1912 — The Tabb Mine.

The United States Geological Survey reports as follows: Lead and zinc deposits are found in both central and western Kentucky. None of the mines in the central districts reported any lead and zinc concentrates in 1912.

In the western Kentucky district considerable quantities of galena concentrates are obtained solely as a by product in the recovery and concentration of fluorspar. The galena recovered is argentiferous the silver content varying from a very small quantity to over three ounces per ton, but no recovery of this silver content has been reported by the smelters for the last two years.

151 tons of galena concentrates were shipped from Marion in 1912 having a value of $6,827.00 and carrying an average lead content of 70.2 per cent. The metallic content or the concentrates was valued at $9,540.00. The quantity of zinc concentrates shipped increased from 467 short tons in 1911 to 1243 short tons in 1912, the total value increasing from $10,604.00 to $41,391.00. The zinc concentrates sold comprised 493 tons of sphalerite of good grade and 750 tons of zinc carbonate averaging 35.6 per cent metal content. The estimated recoverable spelter content was 491 tons valued at $67,758.00, a large increase over the 1911 output which was 158 tons valued at $9,540.00.

The largest producers of galena concentrates were the Kentucky Fluorspar Co.; The Roberts Fluorspar & Lead Co.; the Eagle Fluorspar Co., and the LaRue Co. The Eclipse Mining Co., of Marion, shipped all of the sphalerite concentrates which were derived from the Commodore mine. The largest shippers of zinc carbonates was the Langenbach Mining Co., operating the Mann mine near Lola. Two shafts about 128 feet deep were utilized to obtain the ore.

The Sanders Ore Separating Co., worked the land of the Marion Mineral Co., and shipped a good output of zinc carbonate of high grade.

The unwatering of the Tabb mine at Mexico, Ky., brings to light a number 7 Cameron pump that has remained in the bottom of that shaft for twenty-seven years. Brown and Ward were prospecting for zinc ore at this shaft in 1886 but the water was so strong that the work was abandoned leaving this big pump at the bottom of the shaft. It was a very great satisfaction to Mr. Frazer who has charge of this work to find at the 180 foot level a very high grade body of fluorspar fully six feet in thickness and showing the same on both sides of the shaft. This adds another good producer to the district and assures full average output for the future.

The Hoosier Mining Co., are to be congratulated. It is reported that the company prospecting the Memphis property will arrange to take up other mining propositions and allow the Memphis mines, time in which to refill its many veins with fluorspar.

The Keystone output is becoming a good deal of a factor but happy.

HENRY & HENRY MONUMENT WORKS

Business Good and Work Progressing.—Four Horse Load Sent to Union Last Week.

Henry & Henry have purchased the concrete building and have had a new roof put on it and considerable repairing done to it. They have put up their sign like they had located for life. Business in this line always keeps up. People die in dull times as well as any other time and fine monuments are called for almost every day in the year, at this well known Monument & Tombstone factory.

Last week three large jobs were sent out. One to Union Cemetery for the wife of David Walford was a substantial granite 'handsomely carved'. Another to the same place was for the late Spilman Timmield & wife, was of Bowling Green stone. Another was for Ray Hughes and was of granite and was a hand some one. It required a big strong four horse team to deliver this firms contract to one cemetery last week. They have dozens of unfinished orders on hand and are at work all the time. Carl Moreland and Howard Henre execute the work when Ab gets the orders and he usually lands them.

Hundred-Barrel Well Struck Near Hartford.

Hartford, Ky., Sept. 23.—An oil well was brought in last night on the George Sullenger farm, five miles northeast of Hartford, at a depth of 1,260 feet, showing an initial capacity of more than 100 barrels a day. This well is one mile west of the proved field, and much interest is manifested as a result of the strike.

Seven additional wells are now going down in this vicinity. The county now has a large production.

in the aggregate tonnage of the district, the quality being of exceptionally high grade.

Several of the drill hole cores on the Miller carbonate property show very encouraging results in carbonate of zinc.

The Pigmy mine has a considerable body of spotted ore exposed, that is fluorspar spotted with calc spar.

The drifts on the Franklin mine are being lengthened but do not vary much from the former reports.

The Commodore mine has some 6000 to 8000 tons of crude zinc ore already broken and ready to hoist and mill.

The LaRue Mining Company's output of fluorspar has decreased in tonnage very materially during the last month or two.

The Yandell mine of the Kentucky Fluorspar Co., is furnishing a good grade of product with a fair tonnage.

A reorganization of the Reed Mining Co., is in progress under the direction of Blue & Nunn, Attorneys.

Nothing new is reported from Prof. Wright's property at Leyias and the same can be said regarding the Crittenden Springs property.

That fluorspar mining is a good investment is evidence by the number of mining men from this section who attended the State Fair at Louisville last week, they have all returned looking sleepy but happy.

FROST APPEARED MONDAY MORNING

First of the Season is Right Here, But Killing Frost Falls in Surrounding Counties.

Early risers Monday morning and the editor was one of them, witnessed the first frost of the fall. The frost was very light and did not injure vegetation in this section. All sections of the county report light frost.

Elkton, Ky., Sept. 22.—Todd county was visited last night by the first frost of the season. About three-fourths of the tobacco crop is in the barns. It is believed that still standing in the field is considerably damaged.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 22.—There was a frost in this region early this morning and it is feared that considerable damage was done to tobacco in the lowlands. Elsewhere the heavy dew prevented extensive injury. The minimum temperature was 34 degrees last night.

MRS. EARNEST BUTLER BADLY BURNED

While Pluckily Fighting Fire—Painfully But Not Seriously Injured.

Wednesday morning soon after breakfast was over Mrs. Ernest Butler discovered that the flue in the kitchen was on fire and while she promptly gave the alarm, she did not wait for volunteers or any one else but went to work to put the fire out. In order to reach it she put a box on the stove and climed on it and jerked the collar and trimble down. When she did this the hot coals fell on her face and breast. Before she could get rid of them she was badly burned.

In getting down hurriedly off the box she had put up on top of the cooking stove which was still hot she sprained her ankle quite seriously and as a result is confined to her bed and is unable to walk.

Her hurts are painful but not serious.

Her many friends hope

she will be out soon.

Mr. Butler who is one of Yandell and Gugenheim's trusty employers recently moved with his family to Mrs. Susan Glenn's house and it was there the fire occurred.

It was soon put out with only slight damage to the house but had it not been for the quick thought and quick work of Mrs. Butler it might have gotten beyond control.

Hurrah for Mrs. Butler we need more like her.

The New Mill

The erection of a very substantial large tonnage mill for cleaning and grinding fluor spar is to be a fact in the very near future.

Mr. Avery H. Reed the mining engineer who made it possible for the Roseclaire mine to output its present large tonnage has this mill in charge and he is now deciding on its location.

It goes without saying that when the wheels do "commence to go around" they will keep at it and the fluor spar and zinc and lead ores will enter the cars for shipment in the very best possible shape for the consumers, and the cars will keep moving too.

MINISTER SAID TO HAVE FOUR WIVES

Rev. Jess Beesley, 56, Arrested in St. Louis Saturday on the Charge of Bigamy.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 23.—The Rev. Jess Beesley, 56 years old, a Baptist preacher, who formerly had charges in Carlisle, Ballard and Muhlenberg counties, in Kentucky, was arrested this afternoon in rooming house of the underworld, on a charge of bigamy preferred by his second wife.

To the police, the hoary bearded evangelist told of his chronological marital record as follows: No. 1, Miss Minnie Newman, he married at Richland, Tenn., in 1875, and deserted her immediately; it was a military affair.

No. 2, was Miss Sarah J. Stubble, whom he married in 1881, at Dukedom, Tenn. She lasted a quarter of a century, and had three children. Beesley left her in 1912 to wed

No. 3, Miss Kate Fight, of Jonesboro, Ill., who died on the same day her baby expired in another hospital, fifteen miles away.

No. 4, Miss Margaret Smith, of Harrison, Tenn., whom he married April 19, 1913. He was living with her when arrested today.

The home of wife No. 2 is Greenville, Ky., and their elopement to a little Tennessee town followed a church service one Sunday night. He got the license in Fulton, Ky.

Wife No. 2 now lives in Belleville, Ill., and had been chasing Beesley for several years. She never knew about wife No. 3, who died during a period in which her husband dropped from sight.

Beesley said he had been too busy saving souls to worry about divorces.

G. D. SUMMERVILLE HURT

Automobile Runs Into Buggy in Which He is Sitting.

Tuesday while G. D. Summerville the well known farmer of Mattoon was sitting in his buggy near the edge of the side walk in front of Cochran & Co's., hardware store the automobile of B. L. Sulinger of Lola ran into the buggy in the rear heading it up and throwing Mr. Summerville who the only occupant out and giving him a considerable shaking up and bruising. No bones were broken, but he, being an unusually large man touching the beam at 245 pounds was given terrible wrench in his back and was otherwise injured.

He was taken to the home of Dr. R. L. Moore and examined and Dr. A. J. Driskill was called and pronounced his injuries serious but not dangerous. He is confined to his bed and will be for several days or weeks from the effects of the soreness if nothing else develops.

Sun Bros. Circus Here Tuesday.

The Sun Bros. circus visited Marion again Tuesday and was given a warm welcome. Large crowds were in the city early at the station and the show ground. The show while not as large as on their previous visits there was many new and good features. The Sun Bros. run it on a high moral plane and no trouble was occasioned here by its visit.

KISSED AND MADE UP DIFFERENCES

But the County Couple Kept the Community Well Stirred Up While the Trouble Lasted.

A most exciting series of events springing from domestic troubles of Tom Myers and wife, of this county, was brought to a close here when Myers was fined $30 in the County Court for wife beating.

On last Tuesday Myers and his wife had some difficulty during the progress of which he beat his wife, slaps and bruises upon her and so terrified her that she fled their home and sought refuge in Fredonia, which is near their home.

Noticing her absence for the next several days the neighbors concluded that the woman had been killed, and dragged creeks, ponds and cisterns near Myers premises in an endeavor to locate her body.

Naturally they failed to find her and when they next heard from her she was in Marion on Saturday, where she swore out a warrant, charging her husband with wife beating, and in addition asked that he be put under a bond to keep the peace.

Saturday night the sheriff started out to find Myers and arrest him that he might be placed on trial here. He failed in his search and later developments show that while he was making his midnight ride to protect the woman, who was apparently in terror of her husband, she and her erring spouse resided peacefully in Fredonia. Monday morning both Myers and the woman appeared, and at her request he was allowed to plead guilty to accept a fine of thirty dollars whereupon they departed in apparent peace and harmony with every assurance that they would "live happily ever after."

Lee Cook Dead

Lee Cook, an aged citizen of the northern section of the county died at the residence of his son, Ed Cook, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, of pneumonia and other diseases incident to old age. He had been afflicted with nervous troubles for several years and had been confined to the house for some time. Mr. Cook was born near Jamestown, Russell Co., Kentucky Aug. 8th 1835, and was therefore in his 79 year. He came to this country with his parents in early life and has resided near where he died for over 50 years.

He is survived by one brother H. M. Cook, and one sister Mrs. Richard Wilborn, both of this city, one son Edward Cook of Fords Ferry and two daughters, Mrs. James Goodwin, of Evansville, and Mrs. Charles English, of Boston, Mass. His wife who was Miss Ann Walker a sister of the late R. N. Walker, of this city has been dead many years. The funeral was preached by Rev. G. Y. Wilson of the Tolu who is pastor at Hebron, Sunday at noon and the interment took place at the family cemetery overlooking the Ohio river, on the old homestead in the presence of one of the largest assemblies ever seen in this county, comprising several hundred people.

Mr. Cook was a universalist in faith, but was not a member of any church, as there is no organized body of that faith in this section.

BOOTLEGGER ARRESTED AND FINED

Also 133 Pints of Old Hoosier.—Fine and Costs in One Case Alone is $86.00

Last week Sheriff Joel A. Pickens received word that a shanty boat was anchored on the northern borders of the county and that the proprietor thereof was disposing red liquor in violation of local option or county unit laws of this county. The matter was reported to the county attorney and a warrant secured for the arrest of one Julius Cummings. Saturday afternoon the sheriff and deputy D. Gilliland, city marshal A. S. Cannon and county attorney Moore left the city in Kemps automobile for Fords Ferry where a gasoline launch was secured with which they searched the nooks and crooks of the river on both sides until they reached Rosiclare. There they learned that the boat was anchored near the spring just below the town landing. It was not long until they landed their man who they found alone on the boat. They also captured 138 pints of "Old Hoosier" and turned it over to the officials of Rosiclare to be destroyed and brought their man here and lodged him here in jail. The party reached here early Sunday morning after an all night trip. Cummings was fined $60 and cost amounting to about $86. Monday in the county court and was told to go and sin no more. It is very probable he will at least seek other field and will not attempt any more blind tiger operations in the confines of Crittenden County.

Teachers' Association

At Forest Grove.

The Teachers' Association Div. 2, met at Forest Grove, Friday, Sept. 19th, and was cordially received and delightfully entertained by Mr. Dennis Clark, and his enthusiastic and his appreciative patrons. The school building at Forest Grove is perhaps the most beautifully situated school in the county. The white well-kept building nestled among the green maples on the spacious lawn, afforded an excellent place for such a meeting.

The welcome address was delivered by Rev. Rufus Robinson, a Forest Grove patron, in a very unique but pleasing way.

The program was given as arranged. There were seventeen Div. 2, teachers present besides the Co. Supt. We were glad too, to have with us Prof. Christian, Supt., Marion City Schools, who delivered an excellent address on "The Rural School of The Future a Practical Institution," and Fred H. Hillyard, of Div. 3, who taught in Div. 2, last year, and always has with him the progressive spirit of Div. 2.

Every teacher seemed filled with renewed energy and enthusiasm for better schools.

The dinner was the best, and in Bro. Robinson's words they fed us "of the grains of the field, the fruits of the vine and the firstlings of the flock."

The patrons extended a hearty invitation to the Association to meet with them next year and every teacher responded from the depths of their hearts, aye, aye.

MESSIAH'S KINGDOM.

The Glorious Day of Divine Favor is Nearing.

The period in which sin is permitted has been a dark night to humanity, never to be forgotten; but the glorious day of righteousness and divine favor is soon to be ushered in by Messiah. He, as the SUN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, shall arise and shine fully and clearly into and upon all, bringing healing and blessing, which will more than counterbalance the dreadful night of weeping, sighing, pain, sickness and death, in which the groaning creation has been so long. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the MORNING."

THE KIND OF MAN THE WORLD IS LOOKING FOR.

In the October American Magazine Ray Stannard Baker, writing about Colonel Goethals, the builder of the Panama Canal, reports Colonel Goethals as saying:

"The world today is above

all else a practical world and it demands results. What it is looking for is men who can and will do things. It is reported of Lord Kitchener that, when during the South African Campaign

a subordinate officer reported to him a failure to obey orders and gave reasons therefore, he said to him: 'Your reasons for not doing it are the best I ever

Drought Routs Circus.

Glasgow, Ky., Sept. 18.—The Sun Brothers' circus which exhibited here today had quite an experience in trying to find water for their animals. The Glasgow watercompany is unable to supply the town with sufficient water and informed the show people they could have no water. They went to work trying to find water from private wells, and it was discovered that a great many of the wells, which had never been known to be dry were very low, and would probably go dry. They finally succeed in finding water to make out with, but began to preparing to leave at the earliest possible moment in order to find a more convenient place.

Believed Explorers

Killed By Eskimos.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 23.—The disappearance of George Street, of Ottawa, and H. V. Radford, an American, Northern explorers may be explained by a story which reached here today from Chesterfield Inlet on Hudson Bay. This report, brought by mail steamer and the Hudson Bay route and two months on the way tell of the murder of Street and Radford by Eskimos two years ago.

The two men left Chesterfield Inlet with a party of Eskimos and joined another party of inland Eskimos at Schultz Lake, intending to proceed to Bathurst Inlet on the Arctic Ocean. Shortly afterwards an altercation occurred between Radford and one of the tribe and the Eskimo drove his spear thru the white man. Street attempted to go to his companion's aid and was killed in the same manner.

The story was kept secret by the Eskimos for several months but finally reached the ears of the mounted police at Chesterfield two months ago and a small detail has been sent out to investigate

Dean Adams is opposed to the water works, because he has heard that the supply will be drawn from Crooked Creek and he fears all the "old swimming holes" will be drained. "Down with water works long live the 'old swimming hole,'" says Dean.

The Farmer With a Screw Loose.
The Farmer who will suffer himself to lift a heavy, dragging gate a dozen times a day, when half an hour's work would fix it so that it would swing free and easy, certainly has a screw loose somewhere."

Labor In Life.

A census taken of 500 prisoners who entered the Indiana state reformatory showed that 406 had no trades and 252 were out of employment at the time their crimes were committed.

A daily grind in any criminal court as a continued story of idleness—not wanton idleness, perhaps, but a lack of knowledge of how to produce things.

When the habit of idleness is once acquired, means are generally found somehow to pursue it.

Its followers take what they have not earned; they have nothing healthy to think about, no wholesome aspirations, no good incentives; petty things are found over which to quarrel, and unnatural things secure the attention of the mind.

In idleness the powers and qualities of man atrophy and decay.

It is labor which sets us in right relation to our fellows. It is labor which fits us into our niche in life. It is labor which draws us into real sympathy with the spirit of humankind.

Labor is at once the main sail and the compass in the voyage of life.

Labor is a necessary healthy tonic to a healthy body.

Labor is the best mental tonic there is. It develops, strengthens and contents. It stimulates purpose and generates hope. It puts the powers and qualities of man to their intended use and makes him a part of the universal harmony. —Gleaner.

At the court house on Monday Judge Blue had before him a man, who was arrested for beating his wife, not a gentle reprimand by any means but blows. There was a day probably when this man told the girl that he was married and so grossly abused the other day, that he loved her and with her the world would be brighter and more beautiful and that their lives would be as bright and happy as he could make them. The girl worked hard, long hours in the house and in the field, and as she grew old, her bright face became clouded with care.

Judge Blue did not mince words in telling this husband that the whipping post ought to be established for just such, and fined him thirty dollars and costs. The wife begged his honor to be lenient as the man had made up with her and had promised to do better and this was probably the cause of his getting off so light. Let the neighbors look over occasionally and should this thing intrude again attack the girl he had promised to care for and love, the Press hopes and sincerely hopes that the surgeons will discover that a wife beater's bones are broken in more ways than is mentioned in their latest books on bones.

"Between the greater things that we can not do and the small things we will not do, the danger is that we shall do nothing." —Adolf Monod.

Hon. J. R. Summers of Salem was in the city Tuesday. He is well pleased with his prospects. He is making a quiet canvass of the two counties and seeing the voters. Mr. Summers in the legislature one term in '93 is well equipped, by experience and practice to fill the office he is asking for. He is the county committeeman of his precinct and has been almost as long as one can remember. He has always been a friend of the farmer. Jim Summers life is an open book and no one who knows him will ever have it in his heart to cast a vote against him.

Leslie Melton Ill.

Leslie Melton who has been ill at his home in this city for several weeks, when many of his friends thought him away working on some big contract, is still unable to be out. In order to get the benefit of the open air treatment he has ordered a tent and will during the pretty days this fall spend much of his time in the open air and sleep at night in the tent and thus hopes to recuperate more rapidly.

Special Prices For Next 30 Days.
Millinery at cost, new fall stock, wish to make room for cloaks, ready to wear dresses, and coat suits, of which we now have a fine assortment.

An Egg in An Egg.

While Miss Effie Deboe was preparing her breakfast a few mornings since she broke an egg which on examination, contained another perfect egg also enclosed in a shell inside of the one she had broken. The young lady was quite nonplussed and for fear the story would sound "fishy" she called a witness to see the strange and most unusual phenomenon. We have heard of double eggs and of eggs of curious shapes, but we never before heard of an egg within an egg and each with a perfect and hard shell on it. Did anyone else? Isn't this the first one on record?

Robinson-Phillips.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock, Mr. John F. Robinson and Miss Anna Z. Phillips were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of Mrs. Lissie Phillips, the widowed mother of the bride. There was a large audience present to congratulate the young couple, as they are well known and highly esteemed by their many friends.

Mr. Robinson is a well known young farmer of Gladstone.

Miss Phillips is a well known young lady of Baker neighborhood.

We wish them a long, happy and a prosperous life.

Mr. Koon to Miss Bugg.

A sly little Koon
Came down a tree,
And met Miss Bugg
In societe.

"My dear Miss Bugg"
Says Mr. Koon,

"I have a rug
With lots of room."

"I'm a lonesome Koon,
I need a Bugg,
Will you accept
Half of this rug?"

Says Miss Bugg
To Mr. Koon,

"This is, this is So very soon."

The preacher stood
In the light of the moon
And solemnly pined

Miss Bugg to Mr. Koon.

Rev. Gordon Will Leave For Other Fields.

Rev. W. P. Gordon of this city preached his farewell sermon at the Methodist Church Sunday evening to a large and attentive audience. At the close of the service the Church people and a great number of others bid him good bye. Extending to him and Mrs. Gordon their kind regards and best wishes. Rev. Gordon has made many friends during the year he has been in the city. And wherever he goes the people will find him to be a congenial citizen and a devout Christian gentleman.

J. A. Coburn And His Minstrels.

We are glad to announce the date of that clever, enjoyable, progressive attraction, Coburn's Greater Minstrels next Tuesday Sept. 30 at the Majestic Opera House.

Never disappointing, always reliable, ever season adding more friends to minstrelsy, to himself and his attraction, Joe Coburn has been coming for years with all that is good in minstrelsy, each season getting bigger and better, every year presenting an all new company and programme of splendid minstrel features. Very few if any of the old faces are with the big show this season. New comedians, new singers, new vaudevillians, new scenery, costumes, everything new and bright. A splendid singing party, quartette and chorus numbers, and the latest in song and story. Don't miss this attraction. Seats on sale at Postal Telegraph Cable Office.

Card of Thanks

We desire through the Press to express the gratitude of our hearts to the dear good people who watched with our dear husband and father during his last illness alleviating his suffering as best they could. We pray that kind providence may ever attend them.

Levisa Yandell and family.

TOWN OF PRINCETON SUED

Will Koon, His Wife And Mother-in-law Plaintiffs.

Princeton, Ky., Sept. 18.—The city of Princeton has been made the defendant in three suits filed here by W. D. Koon, Mrs. Fannie Bugg and her daughter, Miss Virginia, residents of the Fredonia Valley section.

The suits grow out of an automobile accident which occurred here last June. On the last evening of the Elks Chautauqua a storm had demolished the pavilion under which the Chautauqua entertainments were being given and the last entertainment was held in the open on the public square, and ropes had been stretched across the streets leading to the Courthouse.

The plaintiffs allege that, because of the lack of lights or warnings, they were unaware of any rope having been stretched across the street, and that by running into it they sustained bodily injuries and pray for damages for amounts aggregating $6,000.

Four Legged Chicken.

Noah Wade (colored) was exhibiting a four legged barred Plymouth Rock chicken on the streets here Wednesday morning. The chicken was hatched out on Tuesday and is seemingly as live as a cricket, but was so badly deformed could possibly never walk and can hardly be expected to live. The extra legs are attached to a growth which has the appearance of being an effort of nature to produce a Siamese twin chicken. —Clinton Fazette.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDY-ON

THE GOLDEN CALF: Exodus 32:15-20, 30-35—Sept. 21. "Little children, keep yourselves from idols." 1 John 5:21.

CHILDREN experienced a severe trial of faith and obedience soon after entering into covenant relationship with God. In this trial they failed utterly. The Covenant was broken. However, after punishing them, God graciously renewed the Covenant.

The circumstances of this testing are part of this lesson. After making the Covenant, Moses, by Divine direction, went up into Mt. Sinai, taking Joshua with him. He was gone forty days. His prolonged absence gave room for the cultivation of faith, patience, trust.

The Israelites remembered the trying experiences through which they had passed. The Egyptians were behind them; the Amalekites might renew their attack. What would they do without Moses, whose up-hands brought them God's favor and victory?

Some Christians use the crucifix to assist faith.

Here worldly wisdom came in. Aaron was perplexed as to how to keep the people from utter discouragement. Apparently they were unable to trust the God whom they could not see. The leaders took counsel together and determined to make a representative of Jehovah—an image which the people could use as an instrument of worship.

We are not to suppose that the Israelites recognized the golden calf as their God Jehovah, but used it merely as a symbol, just as the heathen use their idols as representations of their gods, and as some Christians use the crucifix—not to worship, but to assist faith and hold attention.

Today's lesson seems clearly to indicate that God was greatly displeased with their symbolic representation of Himself. One of His commands had been, "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image," to bow down before it and worship it as a symbol.

Making the Golden Calf.

We are not to suppose that the calf was made of solid metal. Probably it was made of either clay or wood, and then covered with molten gold, which in turn was graven or tooled. Having made the idol, the people rejoiced in it as an evidence of God in their midst, and gave themselves up to a season of feasting and dancing.

After forty days, Moses came down from the mount with the tables of the Law. He heard the people shouting, and then beheld them worshiping the golden calf. Moses was justly angry; for he was the mediator between God and Israel—the representative of both, charged by God with the responsibility of that nation, and he realized that a serious crime against the Covenant had been committed.

Moses dashed the tables of the Law into fragments, indicating that the Covenant had been broken. Armed with Divine authority, he let fall upon the people a just penalty for their rapid retrogression into sin. Then he went to God in prayer, and besought that if the penalty of this sin was the casting off of Israel, he might himself be blotted out instead.

Such patriotism as Moses here evinced has surely not often been equal—loyalty both to Israel, as representative and mediator, and also to God.

Keep Yourselves From Idols.

Let us apply the lesson to Spiritual Israel. After the Christian has left the world, passed the bitter experiences of Marah, had manifestations of God's favor, partaken of the Bread from Heaven, and entered into full covenant relationship with God—there comes a time when he must walk by faith, not by sight. If he fails to learn this lesson, as did the typical Israelites, it will be a serious matter.

This making of images which divert and absorb our worship of God is one of Spiritual Israel's greatest tests. The golden calf which some set up is business, to which they sacrifice both time and energy. The love of money and of things which money can procure leads into idolatry, and thereby breaks our covenant.

Others idolize the opposite sex, giving all they possess for its favor and fellowship. They make the great mistake of worshiping the creature more than the Creator, as the Apostle explains in the book of Romans.

Still another idol is sectarianism, against which St. Paul warned the Church. (1 Corinthians 3:3-5.) The same principle we may apply today if one says, I am of Calvin, Luther, Wesley, are these not evidences of carnality? Is there not serious danger of worshiping the human institutions bearing these names, and thus of having something come between the Christian and his God?

Christendom's creeds are Christian traditions respecting the Truth. God's purpose evidently was that His people should have no creed but the Bible as a whole. They were to search the Scriptures daily, to ascertain God's teachings, and thus to grow in grace and knowledge. Christians should destroy their creeds, which misrepresent God's Character and Plan.

THE RAIN.

BY JAMES R. GLASS.

O the rain, the beautiful rain! See! It is coming down the lane! The dust is wet, the grass revives, The flowers bloom, the meadows thrives.

O the rain, we hear it failing; Soon the birds will be a calling To their mates, so happy and glad; All rejoice, and none are sad.

It cleans the buds, brightens the leaves;

The water trickles from the eaves; It makes the grass look fresh and bright,

So fast it grows during the night.

All nature gives it welcome warmth— It's good for all that's on the farm; It's good for everything that grows; It's good for him who reaps and sows.

After the rain, we see the bow In the cloud, placed there to show

God's vow to the children of men That a flood shall not come again.

In the meadow, smooth and level, See the horses, how they revel! In the grass so sweet and tender, As they munch, with none to hinder.

O could our lives be like the rain! And thus we could all through remain, No one could ever dare to tell How many souls we'd make fare well.

A sore throat can be treated best from the outside. The throat should be rubbed gently with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Apply at night and cover with a cotton cloth bandage; by morning the soreness will disappear. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Haynes & Taylor and James H. Orme.

HALF BURIED IN MASS OF PITCH

Little Hopkinsville Girl Has Trying Experience.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 22.—While running across the top of some barrels of pitch this afternoon, Inez Moore, 12, stepped into one of the barrels from which the heading was gone and immediately sank almost to her knees, the hot sun having heated the pitch to a depth of several inches. In answer to her cries a crowd soon gathered and all sorts of methods were tried to extricate her, but for over an hour all failed. She was pulled until it was feared her legs would be broken, an ax and a garden fork were requisitioned in an attempt to chop her out, but not only did this fail but both implements were caught in the pitch and could not be gotten out.

After a long time the child's legs were slowly worked upward until her shoes cut and she could withdraw her feet. The shoes were left in the pitch. The girl is not seriously injured.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the pride of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say. Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers."

MAKING the ZONE HEALTHFUL by E.W. PICKARD

COLON HOSPITAL

Ancon, C. Z.—All the world gives to Col. W. C. Gorgas, chief sanitary officer, and his assistants full credit for the wonderful work they have accomplished in making the Panama canal zone healthful and keeping it so. All the world that knows gives equal greater credit to those American, Italian and English doctors and soldiers who sacrificed their health and in some cases their lives to prove that yellow fever and malaria, the two terrors of tropic America, are transmitted by the bite of mosquitoes. It is not my intention to tell over again the latter story. The devotion of those brave men actually made possible the building of the Panama canal, for their work has been taken full advantage of by Colonel Gorgas and his forces, and the zone is now one of the most healthful places in the world.

Rats, that carry the bubonic plague, and flies, that transmit various other diseases, have received adequate attention from the sanitary department, and dumb brutes are not neglected. As an instance of the latter fact, every horse and mule in the zone must be placed at night in one of a series of corrals established by the department and there it is fed and cared for, the owner paying a reasonable fixed charge for the service. These animals, if left out, often are attacked by a disease that is infectious and may be transmitted to human beings. Besides that, the native cannot be persuaded to keep his stable in sanitary condition.

Many other sanitary regulations are imposed on the people of the isthmus. All garbage must be deposited in receptacles to be collected by the department's wagons and burned in its crematories. Chickens may not be kept within a certain distance of any dwelling. Rain water may not be gathered and kept in open receptacles. That last rule is not easy to enforce, for the Panamanian prefers rain water for drinking purposes. But all these are for the general good, and the United States has the treaty right to attend to the sanitation of Panama and Colon as well as of the zone.

In addition to the two great hospitals at Ancon and Colon, the department of sanitation maintains a dispensary with physician and nurse at every town along the route of the canal and at Porto Bello, where the commission has a big stone quarry. The larger hospital, on Ancon hill, close to Panama, in the spring of the year had about 900 patients. Its wards and the residences of the physicians and nurses are scattered picturesquely though rather inconveniently on the east and north slopes of the beautiful hill, and the grounds are filled with magnificent trees and lovely flowering vines and bushes. A little further around the hill is the hospital for the insane, and it, too, is well filled, for the Jamaican and Barbadian negroes go crazy at the slightest provocation.

In Colon, stretching along the sea shore in the only pretty part of that flat city, is the other hospital, smaller but no less efficient and well manned than that at Ancon. Its grounds are swept continually by the refreshing winds from the Atlantic and many of its wards are built out over the water. Both hospitals are served by corps of physicians and surgeons, mostly rather young, but able, ambitious and studious.

One mighty good thing the French company did was to establish a sanitarium on Taboga island, and the Americans, recognizing its value, promptly reopened it for the benefit of white convalescents. These may remain on the pretty island for two weeks, paying $2 a day for room, board and medical attention.

As one wanders about the zone he sees at the headwaters of every stream, ditch or other water course, at frequent intervals along its banks, and at the edge of every pool, a big can or a keg. From this receptacle there is a constant drip, drip, drip of larvicide, a black, oily-looking compound of crude carbolic acid, caustic soda and resin. This spreads out over the water, an iridescent film, and when little Anopheline larvae come up for air he meets a swift death. To replenish these cans of larvicide a small army of Jamaicans is kept traveling about the zone, and others go around with tanks of the compound strapped on their backs, spraying every pool they come to.

Another measure of extermination has been the draining and filling in of swampy ground and the straightening and clearing of water courses so that their flow will be too swift for Madagascan Anopheline. The work of draining and filling has been extensive and near the Pacific end of the canal has resulted in the reclamation of large tracts of land for building sites.

In later years Taboga does not become a favorite winter resort for wealthy Americans, I shall make my guess.

Gentlemen: Paducah, Ky.,

Relying to your Inquiry to know if I was pleased with the material you furnished for the new Bungalow residence which I have just about completed on West Broadway, the material required to build this residence included a good quality of long leaf Yellow Pine lumber for the general frame work, the very best Washington Red Cedar shingles for the roof, dormers and gables, strictly first class mill construction work for the window and door frames and interior finish for the openings, stairway, china closets, book cases and other cabinets. Most of the sash and doors are veneered Birch, the floors are polished Maple, Oak and Birch. To execute an order of this kind, I appreciate the fact a mill must have a splendid equipment and it affords me pleasure to advise that I am more than pleased with all of the material you furnished.

The copper wire screens which I instructed you to furnish for openings were also very satisfactory, and I was agreeably surprised that on the first your output compared most favorably with those gotten from E. T. Burrows Co., and the Willer Mfg. Co., and at a much less cost. Yours very truly,

CITIZENS OF NEBO

Request Edwin Hodge to Rebuild Factory. He Replies That Prosecution of Imperial Tobacco Co., an Obstacle.

The matter of rebuilding the tobacco factory at Nebo, which was burned last spring, is now agitating the citizens of that section of the county. Recently a petition was presented to the Imperial Tobacco Co., to whom the factory belonged, to have them come back and rebuild. The reply of the company does not hold out too much hope to the people of Nebo, the company stating that if a suit now pending in the courts is decided against them, they will have to leave the state. A committee of gentlemen representing all classes of industry at Nebo were in the city yesterday discussing the matter and are very anxious to interest capital to rebuild their factory. They state that there will be a good crop of tobacco grown in this section of the county, and that they hope for a factory built or rebuilt in time to handle this year's crop.

The letter of Mr. Edwin Hodge, general manager of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Kentucky, in a response to a request of citizens of Nebo and farmers in that neighborhood explains itself:

Gentlemen: I have received your communication. I shall be pleased to lay that paper before the board of directors of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Kentucky, with recommendation that it be seriously considered, and whatever the result may be, I assure you of my appreciation and that of the company of the friendly and encouraging spirit evinced by the signers, with whom the company has had pleasant and satisfactory business dealings for the past ten years, and the writer for a period of twenty-five years.

So far as I can at present see, a serious obstacle to a compliance with your request at this time is the pending prosecution against the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Kentucky, which is set for trial in November in the circuit court of Union county. Should that prosecution be sustained, it would not only result in a pecuniary fine, but a forfeiture of the company's right to do business in any county of the state of Kentucky. While I am perfectly certain that the charges embraced in this prosecution are absolutely groundless, yet, so long as the prosecution is undecided the company may well hesitate to make further investments or preparation to carry on any business that could be rendered worthless by the court's judgment.

I am hopeful and confidently expecting an early trial and satisfactory conclusion of the case. Should I be correct, the company will then be in a position to consider increasing its investments and business in our state. Otherwise, the elimination of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Kentucky, will result in and would mean the removal of a competitor who has each year purchased about one-third of the tobacco raised in this district.

Again assuring you of my appreciation of your expressions of good will, I remain,

Yours very truly,

EDWIN HODGE,
General Manager of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Kentucky.—Madisonville Hustler.

Mule Held to be Common Carrier.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 23.—Whether the mule, a common beast of burden in the mountains, is legally classified as a "common carrier of freight and passengers," was a question presented before the Franklin circuit court today in a demurrer filed to the suit of Augustus C. Byers against the Great Eastern Casualty Co. Byers had an accident policy insuring him against injury while riding on a common carrier. He was riding a mule belonging to D. Y. Combs, who transports passengers to and from Hazard, when he was thrown and injured. He sued for $153.37. The court held that as Combs is in the general business of transporting freight and passengers for hire, in this instance a mule—is a "common carrier" within the terms of the policy.

News About Teeth.

You've always been taught, haven't you? that any acid is bad for your teeth—either natural or store, but especially natural. But Dr. William J. Gies, of Colombia University, after four years of study and experiment, declares we've been wrong for all these years and years in regard to the care of our teeth and advises us to use as cleansers vinegar, lemon or orange juice or "some food acids." These acids will preserve them. He says: "Food acids even in strong solution, have very little effect on the enamel, even during long periods of exposure." But in using food acids as dentifrices don't make the solution too weak or too strong. Get it right. And if you don't know what is right, find out somehow, the doctor neglects to tell us. —Detroit Free Press.

American Legation Secretary Quits His Post.

New Orleans, Sept. 23.—Twenty three earth quakes within twenty four hours at Guatemala City have disrupted the American diplomatic service to the extent that A. N. Collier, the newly appointed secretary of the legation, has given up his post. Mr. Collier is on his way to Washington, having arrived in New Orleans after remaining only a short time in Guatemala.

He said that being a secretary in a Central American legation was hardly worth the nerve-racking experiences he and Mrs. Collier had on the night of August 30 and during August 31, when the city felt the effects of twenty three distinct earthquakes. Mr. Collier formerly was attached to the American embassy at London.

Scot Met Scot.

A Scotchman was strolling through the market place in Glasgow one day, and close at his heels followed his faithful Collie. Attracted by a fine display of shell and other fish, the Scot stopped to admire, perhaps, to purchase. The dog stood by, gently wagging its tail, while its master engaged the fishmonger in conversation.

Unfortunately for the beastie its tail dropped for a moment over a big basketful of fine, live lobsters. Instantly one of the largest lobsters snaps its claws on the tail, and the surprised collie dashed off through the market, yelping with pain, though dashed violently from side to side. The fishmonger for a moment was speechless with indignation; then, turning to his prospective customer, he bawled:

"Mon! Mon! whistle to yer dog, whistle to yer dog!"

"Hoot, mon!" returned the other complacently, "whistle to yer lobster!"—New York World.

It was an ideal day for the tralia, who has been stopping at a local hotel on a world-girdling tour, was sitting in the main dining room of the hotel last evening, a page passed, crying: "Call for Mr. Waldman."

Supposing the call was for him F. C. Waldman took the message, but found it was addressed to S. C. Waldman.

"That's not for me," said Mr. Waldman, returning the telegram.

Because of the similarity to the name to his he followed the page. A ruddy-faced man in a remote corner of the dining-room proved to be Samuel C. Waldman a merchant of Berlin, enroute to Chicago.

The two Waldmans shook hands, commented on the similarity of their names, and then began to compare notes. Presently, to the surprise of the small page, the gray-haired men threw their arms about each other, it turning out that they were long-lost brothers.

Forty years ago they had left Berlin, two orphan boys, and embarked in a sailing vessel to seek their fortunes. The ship was wrecked off the coast of Australia and the crew and the passengers were forced to put off in boats. The brothers became separated, and never saw each other again until they met here last night. Each had supposed the other dead.
